Meet Our Coordinator

Sherry Bucholz, C-TAGME

Sherry Bucholz has coordinated the radiology residency program at Providence Sacred Heart for the last 20 years and enjoys working with our residents. She has substantial experience in graduate medical education and is certified by Training Administrators for Graduate Medical Education. Her leadership skills, teamwork approach, and professionalism embody an image of excellence that makes a difference in improving resident training, program management, and the training program environment.

Sherry hopes each resident's experience provides a lifetime of wonderful memories.
